

Rain Gauge by David Bridgeman, 2007. The artwork, from the National Collection, is on show now at the National Gallery's Art Space. Photo: Joanna Lewis

ART EXHIBITIONS

Art Space at the National Gallery. The exhibition charts the development of the gallery's new purpose-built facility on the Harquail by-pass with drawings and photographs, featured alongside highlights from the national collection.

100 Years, at Grand Old House, presented by the Morgan Gallery. The exhibition celebrates the 100th anniversary of Grand Old House. The show features a variety of artwork by local artists. All artwork is continually changing as pieces are sold. The exhibition runs until the end of the year.

Expressions of Cayman, at The Gallery, Ritz-Carlton. Featuring artwork by Barbara (Bunny) Holmes, photographer Lloyd Macaulay, Susan Howe, Louis Brezinski, Julieta Alvarez Mazias, Maureen Lazaris, Jo Austin and Shane Aquart. The exhibition will be on show until 4 September. All artworks are for sale.