Paradise (re)Visited

19th century Jamaican landscapes from the collection of Hugh and Pam Hart

August 7th - October 7th 2009

This exhibition provides a rare opportunity to view an unparalleled selection of 19th century prints by renowned artist Joseph Bartholomew Kidd with supporting work by Belanger, Robertson, Hakewill and Duperly. With subjects ranging from idealised landscapes, to plantation houses, to commerce and daily life, viewers will glean an insight into the early colonial history of our neighbours.
