

Ogier Art Award

The Ogier Art Award is a competition and two week exhibition for emerging and established artists in the Cayman Islands. The National Gallery of the Cayman Islands (NGCI) and offshore law firm, Ogier have partnered to put on this annual competition. In its third year, the popularity and participation in the awards competition continues to grow as it aims to support, promote and develop the arts and culture within our community.

Work submitted varies in media including acrylic, oil, pencil and ink, batik, digital art, and sculpture.

If you would like more information on any of the artists below or the Ogier Art Award 2012, contact the National Gallery of the Cayman Islands at 945-8111.
