

ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

NGCI's latest exhibition series, curated by Natalie Urquhart and sponsored by Butterfield, celebrates Cayman's maritime identity – past present and future. Seeking to engage visitors with the story of maritime heritage and national identity

The project begins with a collection of maritime-inspired figurative work by local artists. On display in NGCI's Community Gallery, Saltwater in Their Veins pays tribute to the men who went to sea and to the vessels they sailed. The second part of the exhibition series titled, Upon the Seas takes a contemporary look at Cayman's evolving relationship with the ocean.
