

The National Gallery's Art Outreach programme held the opening of its annual From Within art exhibition last week. A variety of art mediums are on display from artists from eight outreach programmes including Art Unbound, Inside Art, Art Sisters, Art Haven and others. Some of the attendees of the opening, pictured here, view some of the colour photography on display. The exhibition runs through 15 October.

Photo: Alan Markoff

From Within VI