Babbity Barwick | Ceramics, Sound & Video

Barwick moved from Uganda to Northern Ireland in her childhood and gained a BA in graphic design at Central Saint Martins in 1982. She worked in London at various brand agencies and at the BBC before moving to the Cayman Islands in 1987.

As a principal and designer of branding agency BB&P, she worked extensively in the Cayman Islands and the wider Caribbean region on many multi-element campaigns and brands.

Retiring as a graphic designer in 2019 Barwick subsequently returned to fine art, practicing mainly in ceramics, film, and photography. Through her chosen media, she explores patterns, textures, light, and colour to develop new perspectives on her subject of interest.

Barwick's work is represented in the National Gallery's permanent collection and in 2023 she was the recipient of a special commendation in the Bendel Hydes Award category for her contribution to the NGCI exhibition Conversations with the Past in the Present Tense: 3rd Cayman Islands Biennial.
